

My word recognition is about 50%. When I started to use CapTel, I found out I had been conversing by just guessing what others were saying. Now I can even review the entire conversation after the other party hung up. I feel I am more independent for I do not have to ask others to make phone calls for me. CapTel will make a big difference to those who are hard of hearing.